13:00 – 19:00 (Brussels Time)

- Recognized by the Belgian commission of mediation (FBC/CFM) as 5 points.
- In-person event pending on number of participants.

In this seminar we offer a deep, detailed look at Daoist Negotiation techniques and uses: A 5-hour workshop, in which we will teach and experience the theory and practice of useful tactical and strategic negotiation tools.

- Daoist Philosophy.
- Tactical and strategic tools of analysis and engagement.
- Message construction tools.
- Exercises and simulations.

The workshop offers a unique view of Negotiation and Mediation and can benefit both novices and veterans. All are welcome.

Schedule (February 2nd, 2022)

Session 1 (13:00 – 14:00)

- Comparing Inductive and Deductive thought.
- Introducing the philosophical concepts of Dao, Yin, Yang and Chi.

Session 2 (14:15 – 15:15)

- Translating the philosophical into practical tools.
- Adaptation for mediation settings.

Session 3 (15:30 – 16:30)

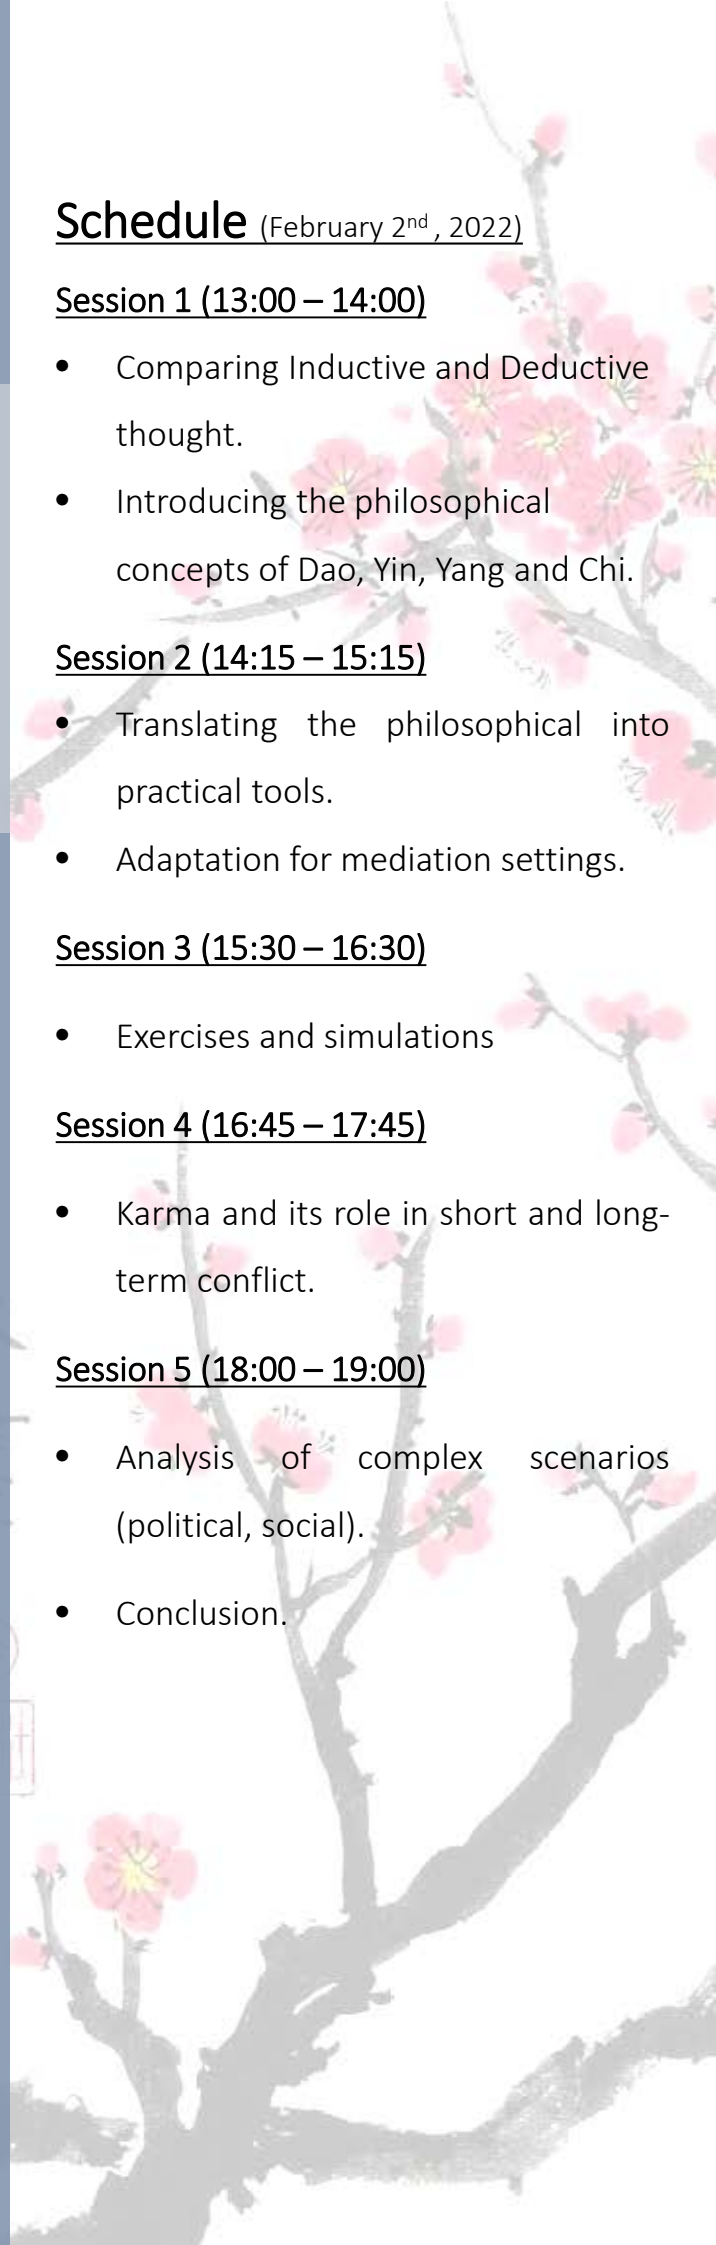

- Exercises and simulations

Session 4 (16:45 – 17:45)

- Karma and its role in short and long-term conflict.

Session 5 (18:00 – 19:00)

- Analysis of complex scenarios (political, social).
- Conclusion.

Daoist Philosophy is one of the major Chinese schools of thought. It advocates, through the mechanism of Yin and Yang, a dualistic, unfixed view of life. It is therefore an excellent lens through which we can examine our thoughts and actions in negotiation and mediation.

Daoist Negotiation theory and techniques do not aim to replace existing tools, but rather supplement them with a unique point of view, allowing practitioners greater agility and confidence, facing diverse challenges.
